FISHO FUNNY

THE FIVE PRINCIPLES OF SHED SCIENCE

1. Never throw anything out. You never know when you might need it.
2. I know where everything is. I know by instinct – it only appears to be a mess.
3. Yes, I need seven of those. You can never have too many tools.
4. Leave that alone. Can't you see that's work in progress
5. It works better that way. Stop asking stupid questions.

Please note your Diary

The Annual Adults Christmas Party/Presentation night was again a great success. Once again the club put on a lovely feast and the music from "Triple Grip" had the members grooving along. A big thanks to President Keith for his "Special Awards" which were a lot of fun. Santa made sure that the ladies were not forgotten when he presented them all with a lovely box of chocolates. Thanks must go to Keith for co-ordinating all the lucky door prizes and also for putting together the trivia questions throughout the night.

Our bus driver Mick again did a sterling job in getting us all home safely.

THE PRESIDENT WRITES;

Well where did the year go?

My third year as a president... and I think we have had a pretty good year as we normally do.

A pretty quiet year on the fishing front but still a good time had by all. Congratulations to all the winners.

This year I was also the Social Secretary, it was a bit quiet but we seem to squeeze in a Car Rally, Night at Major Oaks, Golf Day, Kids Party and of course our yearly trip to Greenwell Point.

We also did a club survey which took a fair amount of time and effort, and this will give the committee a basis to work from with during 2013.

I like to thank you for nominating me as Clubman of The Year....it is an honour.

Thank you to all the committee members and all the helpers throughout the year.

I look forward to being with the same guys on the committee again in 2013.

Finally on behalf of Carol and myself we would like to wish everyone a very happy and safe festive season. Hope to see you all safe and well in the New Year.

Keith
